

First Aid

Today I would like to share with you some posters designed by the Early Childhood team in Vietnam.

We felt it was important that our teams, our partners and the people we accompany in the field should be aware of the emergency numbers and first aid procedures to adopt when we have to call on an emergency aid service.

Please feel free to print them out and display them wherever you think they are relevant (day-care centers, schools, offices, social centers, etc.).